Contents of Volume 16 1985

January

5 The history of the RSRE: E H Putley
12 Photography and electronics: R W G Hunt
19 Anti-phase noise reduction: J E Ffowcs Williams, I Roebuck and C F Ross
25 Control and instrumentation in the air and on the road: L F E Coombs
32 Applications of PHB–a microbially produced biodegradable polymer: P A Holmes

Editorial: Government, industry and humane technology 3
Book reviews 37 Conference reports 42
Talking point 45

March

52 Letter to the Editor: Nuclear safeguards revisited; R Hesketh
54 Contract R and D agreements: M J Cabell
58 Physics and dentistry: M Braden
63 The Alvey programme: B W Oakley
69 Heat pipes: D A Reay
76 GEC Hirst Research Centre: R Clayton and J Algar

Editorial: Probes, hot spots and tender nerves 51
Conference reports 85 Book reviews 89
Talking point 93 Trends in polymers 96

May

100 The peaceful uses of space: G Pardoe
107 Industrial noise control: W D Robinson
114 Electrical techniques for drying: P J Hulls
121 Electrically conducting polymers: D Bott
127 Properties of a streamline in gas flow: M J Sewell

Editorial: Flights of fancy . . . brought down to earth 99
Book reviews 134 Conference reports 138
Talking point 142

July

148 Employment in the manufacture of telecommunications equipment: K Guy
155 Physics in the gas industry: A Melvin and D B Smith
164 Drug delivery and targeting: A T Florence and G W Halbert
171 The development of ion implantation technology in the UK semiconductor industry: K E Dickson
177 The rise of physics laboratories in the electrical industry: P K Hoch

Editorial: 'The right product, in the right place, at the right time. . .' 147
Book reviews 184 Conference reports 190
Talking point 193 Trends in optics 194

September

200 Navigation: J Blaney
207 The theory of electromagnetic levitation: R Goodall
214 Abrasives: L E Samuels
221 Prutec–investing in high technology: D S Allam
226 Physics in the rubber industry: M Hall
234 Government promotion of biotechnology: E J Yoxen

Editorial: What's in a name? 199 Conference reports 242
Book reviews 245 Talking point 250

November

257 Radioactive waste disposal: H S Carlsson
263 The physics of fire extinguishment: P F Thorne 269 The new revolution in textile technology: J W S Hearle
275 The Marconi Research Centre – a historical perspective: G D Speake
282 Electric breakdown in dielectric liquids: E O Forster and G J FitzPatrick
288 Electro-optic field and space-charge mapping measurements in high-volta stressed dielectrics: M Zahn

Editorial: The world of telegrams and anger 255
Meetings and courses 295 Conference reports 296 Book reviews 299
Talking point 301
